Community Reviews for this School

I love going to this school! Its only downfall is the lack of diversity. All the teachers are very passionate about what they are doing.

I loved the small class sizes, close relationships with teachers, incredible academics, amazing food, and close knit community. I would maybe like to see a larger variety of class offerings and a more diverse student body.

Both of my children attend Kent Denver's middle school (6th and 8th grades) and their experiences have been nothing short of extraordinary. The teachers in the middle school really know how kids learn and they help them accomplish extraordinary things. They also really love the kids.. they know how important good relationships are to learning, and they work hard to make sure their students feel understood, respected and appreciated. The school community is so friendly and welcoming overall—I could not ask for a better place for my kids.

The demographic of students at Kent isn't very diverse, as it's mostly full of rich white families. I am the child of a teacher here, so my experience has been more difficult in realizing that I can't always participate in travel trips for clubs, though the financial assistance has been helpful. Even so, I have had a full experience, and though I might complain, as any high schooler is wont to do, I am prepared to enter the world with an extensive knowledge from my wonderful teachers and mentors. Every student leaves with definite ambitions, an appreciation for the little things around them, and a respect for the beautiful campus.
